Georgia ForestWatch is committed to building strong relationships within our communities. This year our focus is on educating our communities on the importance of protecting, preserving and restoring Georgia's National Forests. We have invited local artists, photographers, crafters, authors and musicians to participate and help develop our local connections and support, and spread our vision.

Wild & Woolly is a day to be enjoyed by the entire family!
Bring the kids, bring the neighbors, bring a friend!

Festivities:

- Hawk Talk's Monteen McCord will deliver a fascinating Birds of Prey Presentation between 12:00pm - 4:00pm
- Artists, photographers and crafters will display and sell their wares
- Charles Seabrook will be signing his new book, "World of the Salt Marsh"
- Music throughout the day - Bill Pound, Marlin Brackett and his Hillbilly Bruzers, and The Dill Pickle Trio playing jazz, pop, blues, rock and bluegrass!
- Shop the Native Plant sale
- Wine Tasting with Cartecay Vineyards from 11:00am - 2:00pm
- Kids Corner - story telling and crafts
